(9/25, 10/9, 10/23, 11/06, 11/27, 12/11, 1/8, 1/22)

Time: 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Location: Fireplace Room

What does it mean to live well and to die well? This question lies at the heart of our thoughts and feelings surrounding the mortality of loved ones, as well as our own mortality.

Rev. Axel will be leading an 8-session discussion of “Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters the Most in the End” by bestselling author and surgeon Atul Gawande. An excerpt about the book: “Medicine has triumphed in modern times, transforming the dangers of childbirth, injury, and disease from harrowing to manageable. But when it comes to the inescapable realities of aging and death, what medicine can do often runs counter to what it should.” Through eye-opening research and gripping stories of his own patients and family, Gawande reveals the suffering this dynamic has produced... Riveting, honest, humane, Being Mortal shows how the ultimate goal is not a good death but a good life - all the way to the end.”

Please acquire the book and read the Introduction and first chapter for our first session. Please contact Rev. Axel (minister@uucmp.org) if you have questions, or plan to attend.

Suggested donation: $5.00 per session

SANGHA GROUP AWAKENING THE BUDDHA WITHIN

Dates: Wednesdays

Time: 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Location: Sanctuary

Buddhism is a path of self-discovery. Through the practice of meditation and mindfulness we cultivate compassion, decrease suffering, and lead a more balanced life.

The purpose of the group is to provide “Sangha” (spiritual community) for everyone interested in practicing meditation and learning about the “Dharma” (the teaching of the Buddha).

Our Sangha is a self-led group that has no affiliation to any particular Buddhist school of tradition. All are welcome to attend.

We sit in silent meditation from 7:00 to 7:20 p.m., followed by brief individual sharing about our practice. Then we listen to Dharma talks recorded by noted Buddhist teachers with group discussion afterward.

“We are shaped by our thoughts; we become what we think. When the mind is pure, joy follows like a shadow that never leaves.” - The Buddha
